Item 8.01 Other Events.

As of January 1, 2015, Willis Group Holdings plc and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”) has reorganized its business from three operating segments (formerly known as Willis Global, Willis North America and Willis International) into four operating segments: Willis Capital, Wholesale and Reinsurance (“WCWR”), Willis North America (“WNA”), Willis International, and Willis Great Britain (“Willis GB”). WNA, which will continue to be led by Todd Jones, and Willis International, which will continue to be led by Tim Wright, will remain largely unchanged except for certain specialty teams formerly included within Willis Global but which will now be included within the geographic regions in which they are located. The other segments will be as follows:

- WCWR includes Willis Re, Willis Capital Markets and Advisory and the Company’s wholesale businesses. It will also include a new unit called Willis Portfolio and Underwriting Services which includes all of the Company’s activities that provide portfolio and underwriting services. WCWR will be led by Steve Hearn, the Company’s Deputy CEO.
- Willis GB includes the Company’s UK retail business, facultative business and London specialty businesses. It is being led by Steve Hearn. Following a period of transition and receipt of necessary regulatory approvals, Nicolas Aubert will be appointed to CEO of Willis GB to succeed Steve Hearn in this role. Mr. Aubert joins the Company on January 19th from AIG.
